FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

06 Cr. 771 (VEC)

WHEREAS, on or about September 29, 2021, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Substitute Assets (the “Preliminary Order of Forfeiture”) (D.E. 135), which ordered the forfeiture to the United States of, all right, title and interest of GEORGE BING TONKS (the “Defendant”) in the following property:

- i. One Gents Rolex Explorer II Oyster Perpetual, 40mm, stainless steel oyster band 16570 series, serial number 39778289, seized from the Defendant by the Government on or about June 21, 2006 at the time of his arrest;

(the “Substitute Asset”).

WHEREAS, the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture directed the United States to publish, for at least thirty (30) consecutive days, notice of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, notice of the United States' intent to dispose of the Substitute Asset, and the requirement that any person asserting a legal interest in the Substitute Asset must file a petition with the Court in accordance with the requirements of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(n)(1). The Preliminary Order of Forfeiture further stated that the United States could, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Substitute Asset as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified;

WHEREAS, the provisions of Title 21, United State Code, Section 853(n)(1), Rule 32.2(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Rules G(4)(a)(iv)(C) and G(5)(a)(ii) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, require publication of a notice of forfeiture and of the Government's intent to dispose of the Substitute Asset before the United States can have clear title to the Substitute Asset;

WHEREAS, the Notice of Forfeiture and the intent of the United States to dispose of the Substitute Asset was posted on an official government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov) beginning on October 1, 2021, for thirty (30) consecutive days, through October 30, 2021, pursuant to Rule G(4)(a)(iv)(C) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions and proof of such publication was filed with the Clerk of the Court on March 13, 2025 (D.E. 138);

WHEREAS, thirty (30) days have expired since final publication of the Notice of Forfeiture and no petitions or claims to contest the forfeiture of the Substitute Asset have been filed;

WHEREAS, the Defendant is the only person and/or entity known by the Government to have a potential interest the Substitute Asset; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(1), the United States shall have clear title to any forfeited property if no petitions for a hearing to contest the forfeiture have been filed within thirty (30) days of final publication of notice of forfeiture as set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(1).

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. All right, title and interest in the Substitute Asset is hereby forfeited and vested in the United States of America, and shall be disposed of according to law.
2. Pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(1) the United States of America shall and is hereby deemed to have clear title to the Substitute Asset.
3. The United States Marshals Service (or its designee) shall take possession of the Substitute Asset and dispose of the same according to law, in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(h).

Dated: New York, New York
March 18, 2025

SO ORDERED:
